LOCAL MATTERS.

IN VESTIGATION .-- The Board of Directors of the State penitentiary are engaged in investigating some of the acts of the general agent and storekeeper of the institution. There is no suspicion or charge of dishonesty on the part of him or any one in his office, and or 40c. per dozen. Snaps, 8 to 10c. per quart all his books and accounts are believed to be per half-peck, 20 to 25c. Onions, 5c. per entirely correct. The testimony when comwill be forwarded to the Governor pleted for such action as he deems proper in the premises.

A FINE PROSPECT.—The Westham Gran-ite Company has made the lowest bid for furnishing the granite for the new post-office building at Raieigh, N. C., and will doubt-less receive the contract. If this work is brought here, with the contract of Colonel the Philadelphia post-office, there will be more enployment for stone-cutters here than ever before.

"COUNCIL OF THE CROSS."-William Campbell, who was charged with coming bere from Washington and establishing without proper authority a lodge of the "Sons and Daughters of the Living Council of the Cross," and thereby obtaining a considerable amount of money from the colored people, was before the Police Justice Saturday. Several witnesses stated that Campbell had told them that he had to pay Congress $1,100 for the charter, and that they must pay him that amount before he could establish a lodge. The testimony was, however, of such a conflicting character that the Police Justice would not hold him, and he was accordingly discharged.

NEW GROVE OF DRUIDS .- Another Grove of Druids was organized on Friday night at Covenant Hall, to be known as Elvin Grove, No. 8. There were about thirty charter members. The following officers were elected for the first year: C. McIndoe, noble arch: J. M. Brosius, vice arch; H. B. Gaines, secretary; D. P. Branch, treasurer; N. W. Harrison, inside guardian; John R. Cooper, past arch.

Grand Secretary John B. Vaughan has also received an application for a charter for a grove to be formed at Greensboro', N. C., there being no Grand Grove in that jurisdiction.

erly Hincock was chosen as a delegate. Alternates: Frank A. Hundley and Ambrose Barrett. The meeting was large and harmonious. Mr. A. M. Trabue addressed the meeting at length, eulogizing Governor Walker, and detailing many noble acts of the Governor's during the four momentous years he was at $2 to $5 for beef; flour, $5 to $13 per hunthe helm of State.

Negro Badly Beaten.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] Burkeville, VA., August 1 .- A negro man, near this place this morning, named Cass Miller, a very quiet and peaceable citizen, while going to his work about one mile below here, was set upon and dreadfully beaten by two unknown negro men. His head and face were almost mashed to a jelly. He was brought here and his wounds attended to by a surgeon. While being conveyed to his home fears were entertained that he would not live to get there. It is supposed this deed was perpetrated by some escaped convicts from the penitentiary, who, it is thought, are hiding in the woods below

The Brooklyn Scandal,

REMARKABLE LETTER FROM BEECHER TO MRS -New York, August 1 .- The Brooklyn Eagle publishes a remarkable letter, which t says, was addressed to Mrs. Tilton by Mr. Beecher immediately after the publication of the Woodhull slanders. The Eagle says of the letter: It comes to us from a friend of Mrs. Tilton, and the authenticity has been demonstrated to us in the most conclusive manner by an opportunity to inspect the original, which Mrs. Tilton entrusted for a few hours to her friend without know ing what use was to be made of it, but would serve truth and justice. The following is the letter in full: " My Dear Mrs. Tilton : I hoped that you would be shielded from the knowledge of the great wrong that has been done to you and through you to universal womanhood I can hardly bear to speak of it or allude to a matter than which nothing can be imagined more painful to a pure or a womanly nature. I pray daily for you that your faith fail not; you yourself know the
